

JSW SCHOOL OF PUBLIC POLICY

INDIAN INSTITUTE OF MANAGEMENT AHMEDABAD

JSW SCHOOL OF PUBLIC POLICY (JSW-SPP)

Visiting Fellow: Public Policy - JSW School of Public Policy

About the School

The JSW School of Public Policy (JSW-SPP) at the Indian Institute of Management Ahmedabad (IIMA) is a centre of excellence in the making. Set up with support from the JSW Group, it seeks to make a distinctive contribution to knowledge about public policy through cutting-edge research on the emerging Indian experience of policy formulation and design, policy choice, and policy impact, and through its educational programs.

Visiting Fellow: Public Policy - JSW School of Public Policy

JSW-SPP invites applications for Visiting Fellows. The fellowship provides an opportunity to outstanding scholars and practitioners from public policy, public administration, and related fields to undertake research, writing, and scholarly engagements in the field of public policy.

Areas under which fellowships are being offered include but are not limited to:

1. Health
2. Education
3. Agriculture
4. Digital transformation
5. Technology and data regulation
6. Skill-building and human capital
7. Sustainability including energy policy, water policy, and climate change
8. Urban development
9. International relations of India

Engagement during the fellowship

Fellows must clearly identify the scope of their contribution during the fellowship. Activities must include one of the following:

- Undertake research that leads to high-quality publications
- Undertake a book project with a reputed publisher
- Write public policy cases

In addition, Fellows can:

- Offer online/offline seminars and workshops
- Contribute to outreach through op-eds, policy briefs, policy blogs, and podcasts
- Contribute to short-duration executive education activities of the school

Who can apply?

This program is open to the following:

- a) Academics with regular appointments who wish to spend a sabbatical of up to one year on research
- b) Experienced practitioners in public policy and related fields
- c) Independent researchers who are not part of an academic programme, but have a body of work on public policy

Fellowship program structure

The Visiting Fellowship is for a period of up to one year and Fellows will receive a monthly stipend. Fellows will be required to work from the IIM Ahmedabad campus. They will be able to access the library and computer centers as well as a rich community of scholars to facilitate their work. On-campus residential accommodation is not available.

How to apply?

Applicants must send a complete application package including:

- A complete CV
- A statement of purpose not exceeding 1000 words that:
  - Describes the proposed project to be completed during the fellowship
  - Describes the specific output for the completed project such as research publication, book, or cases

To ensure full consideration, the package should be sent electronically to dean-fac@iima.ac.in and jswspp@iima.ac.in by December 31, 2021.

Disclaimer:

Kindly note that the fellowship is NOT an academic degree from either IIMA or JSW-SPP.
