GENERAL INSTRUCTIONS

APASL-ACLF Research Consortium is an initiative to bring experts from the Asia-Pacific region to come together and form a working group on understanding and develop this distinct syndrome of acute-on-chronic liver failure, with high short-term mortality and more importantly, with a potential of reversibility. This initiative can begin and strive ahead by consolidating data of ACLF patients from all our centers together and then studying and bringing out consensus guidelines that can be applied for the benefit of our diverse patients from Asia-Pacific. It is of paramount importance that we work together and make a better future for our patients suffering from this dreaded, yet curable syndrome.

1. All appointments under the APASL-ACLF Research Consortium shall be on "contract basis" for a period of six months and are further extendable based on performance - subject to availability of funding and project needs.
